ABSTRACT

Resulting from a 3 year project to develop and test competency based training programs for camp personnel serving the physically handicapped, the directory provides information on camping services available to the handicapped. States are listed alphabetically under the appropriate American Camping Association regional divisions. Agencies are categorized according to the services offered: both primary and referral (knowledgeable of camping services and also able to refer to other knowledgeable sources); primary (provide the public with information about available camping services to the handicapped and offer technical assistance and consultation); referral (refer the public to primary resource agencies or individuals); and additional resources (additional agencies which might be able to provide information). The address, phone number, and contact person are provided for each agency. Also given are a list of directories for the various regions and the names and addresses of national associations. (SBH)

FOREWORD

The Bureau of Education for the Handicapped has for many years recognized the educational value of camping as an important aspect in the lives of handicapped children. Since 1971, when our Bureau provided funding to help sponsor the National Conference on Training Needs and Strategies in Camping, Outdoor and Environmental Recreation for the Handicapped at San Jose State University, there has been a nationwide movement toward including handicapped children and youth in organized camping programs.

The material contained in this book, and the other volumes that make up the Camp Staff Training System, are the result of a three year project funded by our Division of Innovation and Development. In funding this effort, it was our hope that the results of the project would help make camp personnel aware of the unique and special needs of handicapped children and to provide information and resources to help ensure that those special needs are met.

The Bureau of Education for the Handicapped is committed to the goal of equal opportunity and a quality life for every handicapped child in the United States. Opportunity to participate in camping programs on an equal basis with their non-handicapped peers is a right to which all handicapped children are entitled. However, this goal can be achieved only if those responsible for the provision of camping services are likewise committed to this goal.

Dr. Edward W. Martin
Deputy Commissioner
Bureau of Education for the Handicapped

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Camp Staff Training Series is the result of more than three years work representing the generous efforts of many individuals and organizations in the field of camping, therapeutic recreation, special education and other interested disciplines. The development of the Camp Staff Training Series would not have been possible without the dedicated support of Melville J. Appell, who served as Project Officer for the Bureau of Education for the Handicapped, U.S. Office of Education. We are indebted to him for his leadership and inspiration. While it is not possible to cite all of those who contributed, we extend our special thanks to the following:

USERS INFORMATION

This directory is a part of the CAMP STAFF TRAINING SERIES developed by Project REACH at the University of Kentucky under a grant from the Bureau of Education for the Handicapped, U.S. Office of Education. The basic principle on which the Series was developed was to assist camp personnel to gain a better understanding of the nature of their jobs and to acquire those skills and competencies needed to perform their duties in an effective and professional manner. A unique feature of the Series is its emphasis on meeting the special needs of campers who are handicapped but are nontheless entitled to the opportunity to participate in camping experiences with their non-handicapped peers.

One of the project's concerns has been public and professional awareness and knowledge of camping services available to the handicapped. This directory is an effort to identify resources who are knowledgeable in camping for the handicapped and is not designed to be a comprehensive listing of sources of information. It is intended to help (1) stimulate interest and research in the area of camping for the handicapped and (2) increase awareness of sponsoring and concerned agencies and individuals.

The Directory of Agencies Concerned with Camping and the Handicapped has been compiled to aid in the location of camping services for the handicapped . The directory is organized according to the ACA regional divisions and the states are listed alphabetically under each region. The agencies appear in order according to the services provided. The order and category of the services are as follows:

Primary and Referral - Knowledgeable of camping services and able to refer to other knowledgeable sources.

Primary - Provide the public information about available camping services to the handicapped and offer technical assistance and consultation.

Referral - Refer the public to primary resource agencies or individuals.

Additional Resources - Additional agencies which might be able to provide information.

The address, phone number, and contact person are provided for each agency, supplying the information needed to contact any agency. Each agency should be able to supply information or refer you to knowledgeable sources, however, it must not be assumed that each agency can provide comprehensive statewide information on all disabilities. The information may be disability or geographically specific. Hopefully, the resources available can provide information to serve your specific needs.
